JUVENILE JUSTICE COMMISSION

GENERAL MEETING SUMMARY

January 21, 2014

Eleven Commissioners attended the January 21, 2014, general meeting of the San Francisco Juvenile Justice Commission.

- Commissioner Morgan opened the general meeting as the Commission's newly elected Chair.
- As of the date of the JJC meeting, the Youth Guidance Center was populated by 60 total youth consisting of 53 males and 7 females.
- The recent closure of Unit 4 at the Youth Guidance Center has resulted in an increase in time teachers have available to spend assisting detained youth with academic coursework.
- The JJC received information regarding San Francisco's Youth & Family Violence Courts, which hear cases involving violence among youth and family members focusing on reunification and dispute-resolution as opposed to traditional prosecution.
- The JJC will proceed with its major 2014 inspections of Log Cabin Ranch, Adult Lock-Up Facilities, the Youth Guidance Center, and Group Homes on a quarterly basis.
