JUVENILE JUSTICE COMMISSION

GENERAL MEETING SUMMARY

December 16, 2014

Eleven (11) Commissioners attended the December 16, 2014, general meeting of the San Francisco Juvenile Justice Commission (“JJC”).

- As of the date of the commission meeting, the Youth Guidance Center population consisted of 69 youth; 61 boys and 8 girls. The Log Cabin Ranch population consisted of 15 boys.
- Chair Morgan briefed the commission on the “Guiding Rage Into Power” program which she recently attended at San Quentin. The GRIP program is a year-long transformative and rehabilitative experience for inmates at San Quentin.
- Chief Nance reported that Sunset Youth Services has temporarily staged a mobile recording studio in Unit 3 at the Youth Guidance Center for use by detained youth. The purpose of the program is to build positive relationships with the youth that will hopefully continue following their release in to the community.
- The juvenile probation department facilitated its annual Holiday Card Writing Program wherein detained youth are provided supplies to write holiday cards to send to family and friends who they cannot see due to detainment during the holidays.
- The Juvenile Justice Commission held its annual elections. Beginning in January 2015, the new commission chair will be Commissioner Maldonado.
