To San Francisco Superior Court Temporary Judges and Prospective Temporary Judges:

The San Francisco Superior Court is offering Bench Conduct and Demeanor Training for Temporary Judges and Prospective Temporary Judges. The Bench Demeanor Training is required to serve or continue as a Temporary Judge and complies with Rule 2.812. Moreover, the information is helpful and informative in your role as a Temporary Judge.

You must attend this training in order to participate in the Temporary Judge Program. All attendees must stay the entire length of the training session. A Bench Officer of the San Francisco Superior Court will facilitate the training.

Space is limited, therefore, to confirm your planned attendance, for further information or ADA Accommodations, please contact Adrienne Williams at the Court's Administrative Office as follows:

Thank you for your continued interest in the San Francisco Superior Court Temporary Judge Program and serving our Court. We look forward to seeing you.

Very truly yours,

Adrienne Williams
