

Externship in the Court's Probate Department
San Francisco Superior Court (San Francisco, CA)

The San Francisco Superior Court is seeking current law students for semester-long externships with the court's Civil Probate Department. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis for the Fall, Spring, and Summer semesters.

The candidate must have completed a law school Wills and Trusts course before beginning the externship.

20 hour per week minimum commitment required.

Ideal candidates for the position will have strong research and writing skills and be responsible, dependable, and detail oriented. An interest in trusts and estates, probate, or related areas preferred.

Applications should include a cover letter, resume, writing sample, and an unofficial transcript. Please address your application to:
